

CFS Strategy 2024-2027

Excellence – We have consistently high expectations of our pupils and staff

A	Pupils consistently experience quality first teaching, based on the six key principles of teaching and learning at CFS.
B	Teachers and leaders develop and implement a well sequenced, knowledge rich, broad, brave and personalised All Through curriculum.
C	Staff are proactively supported to grow their talent and expertise.
D	Pupils’ conduct and behaviour for learning is excellent.
E	Leaders are highly effective and ambitious.
F	The school operates in a sustainable and efficient financial position.

Opportunity – We provide a range of inspiring opportunities to enable staff and pupils to fulfil their potential

A	Pupils and staff use technology as a highly effective tool to enhance learning and teaching.
B	SEND and disadvantaged pupils receive equitable opportunities and exceptional support.
C	Staff experience a personalised approach to professional development and training, including embracing opportunities within the Trust.
D	The vast majority of pupils attend school regularly and engage fully with school opportunities.
E	All members of our community fully embrace the opportunities afforded to us by being an All Through school.
F	Pupils experience highly effective transition between every stage of their educational journey, including movement into post-16 opportunities.

Experiences through Cultural Capital – We provide our pupils with experiences, knowledge, skills and behaviours to confidently engage with others, and challenge social divides

A	Pupils have excellent oracy, reading and language skills.
B	Pupils experience proactive and reactive PSHE, careers, and RSE education which continues to be area-leading.
C	Pupils experience the rich heritage of our local community, and develop tolerance, empathy and understanding of a wide range of different beliefs, cultures and ways of life.
D	Pupils are supported in leading healthy lives, mentally and physically.
E	Pupils continue to fully engage with a vast and impressive range of enrichment and extra-curricular opportunities
F	The school community benefits from increased sporting facilities.

Community and Family – We recognise the impact of community and family on a pupil’s education, building strong and positive relationships between pupils, staff and parents

A	All members of the school community promote and foster a Culture of Kindness, and embody British Values.
B	Pupils maintain their immense pride in the school, and proactively contribute to its further development through pupil voice and leadership opportunities.
C	Staff continue to feel highly valued and supported with workload, showing immense pride in working at CFS.
D	Pupils continue to receive an exceptional level of pastoral care and safeguarding, with leaders and staff proactively responding to a post-Covid society.
E	Parents are highly engaged in all areas of the school.
F	Pupils experience celebration and competition through our thriving House system.
G	The school supports the growth of the Trust, focusing on the development of a local cluster of schools.
