General Notices

- Primary

This week, our Thursday assembly focus in Primary was on 'Internet Safety'. Ash Class delivered a lovely assembly on the importance of talking to others about what you see, read and play online. The message for Internet Safety Day this year is 'Want to talk about it?' - we hope that your child may come home and want to discuss more with you about using the internet safely. The following video was shared <https://www.bbc.com/ownit/its-personal/real-stories?collection=safier-internet-day-2023>

If you would like more information on supporting your child with using the internet the following link has some useful information to support parents and carers of young children. <https://saferinternet.org.uk/guide-and-resource/parents-and-carers>
